

Expense Reimbursement Policy

Employees can claim reimbursement for approved business expenses including travel, client meals, and work-related purchases.

All claims must be submitted within 30 days of the expense, along with valid receipts, through the expense management system.

Claims above 5000 rupees require manager approval before submission. Claims submitted after 30 days will not be processed.